

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2243 - SB 2292

March 2, 1998

SUMMARY OF BILL: Moves the requirements for certified trainers of firearms from the provisions of the Private Protective Services Licensing and Regulatory Act and establishes a new part under the Consumer Protection Act to regulate certified trainers for firearms.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenues - $34,200

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Currently, an annual fee of $150 for certification as a firearms trainer is collected. There is no provision for the collection of fees under the provisions of this bill.

This bill transfers the responsibility of certification within divisions of the Department of Commerce and Insurance. Under the provisions of this bill, firearm trainers in the Department of Safety are required to be certified. The resultant increase in expenditures is not estimated to be significant.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
